Pradee's friend Naveen wished me late for my birthday. He used to call me Akka, which I adored. He was the first junior to develop brother feelings for me.🥰

Naveen used to pay me a visit every day after school. In the exam room,He used to say good-by every day. I felt like I should have met him sooner. I knew I'd miss him the following year. He gave me choki. For the half-yearly exam, we were all in the same class.

Naveen and Pradee used to fight. I texted Naveen, pleading with him to attend their reunion.

On the last day, I saw Naveen five times. I wished I could have his photograph, but I couldn't. Finally, they were all having fun on their last day of school.☺

13-1-14 Naveen and Pradeep came home. He wasn't saying much to me face to face, but he could express himself well in texting. I felt a brotherhood with him after that Ronald. I started calling him "Thambi" from my heart.
